

You Are Invited. . .

Meet & Greet with PLSI Students
&
SWITCA Quarterly Meeting

You Are Invited

When:

Friday, June 18th
9:45 am-3:00 pm

Where:

UNM Law School
Meet & Greet:
Room 2401

SWITCA Meeting:

AIRC Conference Room

Parking:

Parking passes will be available at the AIRC Office. Please stop by before you proceed to the meeting room.

*Participants will receive mileage reimbursement.

Agenda

9:45 am – 12:00 pm—Presentation to PLSI Students by Tribal Judges and Tribal Leaders

The Native students in this year's PLSI class are in their second week of the program. Tribal judges, tribal leaders, and tribal court personnel are invited to share their perspectives on the important work of tribal courts. Students will benefit from this rare and valuable opportunity to learn about tribal judicial systems and from the advice and encouragement given by respected tribal leaders and judges.

12:00 pm – 1:00 pm—Lunch Provided

1:00 pm –3:00 pm—Indian Case Law Update

The SWITCA Quarterly Meeting will include an Indian case law update by Ms. Sherri Thomas, Assistant Professor at the UNM School of Law. Ms. Thomas will cover New Mexico v. Harrison, (decided in the NM Supreme Court on June 8, 2010) - regarding jurisdiction of state officers to search Indians in Indian Country, among other pertinent cases for tribal courts, and other recent cases.

To ensure we order enough food for everyone, PLEASE RSVP by June

16th to Valerie Begay at:
(505) 277-5462 or begay@law.unm.edu

