

You Are Invited. . .

Meet & Greet with
PLSI and NA-PLUS Students &
SWITCA Quarterly Meeting

When:

Friday, June 22nd
9:45 am - 2:00 pm

Where:

UNM Law School
Meet & Greet:
Room 2402

SWITCA Training:
Bruce King Room
(upstairs library)

Parking:

Parking passes will be available at the AILC Office. Please stop by before you proceed to the meeting room.
SWITCA Judges will receive mileage reimbursement.

Agenda

9:45 am – 12:00 pm—Presentation to PLSI and NA-PLUS Students by Tribal Judges and Tribal Leaders

The Native students in this year's PLSI and NA-PLUS class will hear presentations from tribal judges, tribal leaders, and tribal court personnel to share their perspectives on the important work of tribal courts. Students will benefit from this rare and valuable opportunity to learn about tribal judicial systems and from the advice and encouragement given by respected tribal leaders and judges.

12:00 pm – 1:00 pm—Lunch Provided (Forum)

1:00 pm – 2:00 pm – Tribal Court Training Program

The SWITCA Quarterly Training will include a presentation of two newly developed online training programs by the AILC and the UNM School of Law's Southwest Indian Law Clinic. Domestic Violence Virtual Courtroom provides training on protection orders against domestic violence. Tribal Court Practice: Intimate Partner Sexual Abuse offers training on intimate partner sexual abuse topics and the possible dynamics of such issues in the tribal courtroom.

To ensure we order enough food for everyone, PLEASE RSVP by June

14th to Valerie S. Begay at:
(505) 277-5462 or begay@law.unm.edu

