

Information Regarding Travel Reimbursements

Up to 30 lodging and travel reimbursements (up to $800) are available for Tribal Education Departments (TEDs) and Tribal Colleges and Universities (TCUs). At least one representative (perhaps more depending on funding) from each TED and TCU is eligible. Other attendees might also qualify for a reimbursement and should direct questions to ailcinfo@law.unm.edu or call (505) 277-5462. Reimbursement forms will be available at the conference registration table on the second day of the conference.

Travel expenses that are generally eligible for reimbursement

- Economy airfare or mileage (whichever is less expensive)
- Lodging at the host hotel at the discounted conference room block rate
- Airport parking and mileage to and from the closest departure airport; or taxi, uber, or lyft to and from the closest departure airport (whichever is less expensive)
- Checked bag fee

Travel expenses that are NOT eligible for reimbursement

- Meals
- Expenses that are incident to lodging (i.e., in-room movies, room service, etc.)
- Rental car
- Costs for transportation between the Albuquerque Sunport and the host hotel. Note: Isleta Resort and Casino (the host hotel) has a courtesy shuttle for transportation to and from the Albuquerque Sunport.
